1. Introduction

This course introduces students to issues associated how to formulate and implement firm strategy in the global environment. It draws on building a fundamental understanding of how and why some firms achieve and sustain superior performance. This course primarily aims at enabling students to understand and analyze the factors that affect organizations' long-run economic performance and to provide them with the tools to make recommendations to organization on how they can improve their long-term performance.

2. Course Objectives

This course provides students with specific tools that will enable them:

- to assess the structure of firms' external environments and understand how these affect expected long-run industry performance
- to evaluate firms competitive positioning and interaction, and assess firm-level resources and capabilities
- to develop appropriate and superior strategies at the business-unit and corporate levels
- to assess the dynamics of competition and understand how economic, social, political, and technological forces can determine the need for strategic re-positioning and affect long-term profitability
- to understand and manage the complex ethical and social issues facing organizations as they develop and implement their strategies

This class is designed to function like an MBA course and to prepare students (a) for potential MBA courses in the future and (b) for professional experience. Thus, this emphasizes class preparation and class discussion
