※Above is a plan as of April 14. Please understand that the schedule is subject to change due to the unavoidable situations.

Monday, July 5: Online Opening Ceremony in the 1st period, then Japanese language placement test. In the 3rd period we will have a brief live tour of SGU's Ebetsu campus via Zoom.

Tuesday, July 6: We will have an online welcome party via Zoom. Bring your own snacks and drink and have fun in your own room. Let's introduce each other on the screen.

Wednesday, July 7: We will show you attractive sightseeing spots in Hokkaido through photos or motion pictures of Sapporo Otaru, Niseko and so on. You will get to see pictures from past Japanese Programs

Thursday, July 8: Communication time with SGU students. Introduce each other, ask questions and talk a lot. We will play games if possible.

Monday, July 12: Another introduction of Hokkaido—this time of other places such as Hakodate, Furano, Lake Toya etc.

Tuesday, July 13: 2nd online communication time with SGU students. Let's get to know each other more. You can learn language of your counterpart and talk about latest situations.

Thursday, July 15: A staff member from international office will show you the live view from the city of Sapporo (the plan can be changed depending on the COVID situation in Sapporo).

Friday, July 16: The last day. One hour of Japanese class and casual online Certification. We will send you the certificate later via post mail.
